

Sponsorship Programs

General Information

- Iowa Code Camp has been hosting free software development conferences since 2008.
- Attendance at events has grown steadily and now averages 240 attendees at our Des Moines area events.
- Our audience is the computer software industry in Iowa and surrounding states. Our attendees are primarily computer software developers, engaged in self improvement and their careers.
- Our email reach exceeds over 2,000 recipients, made up almost completely of those that have attended an event in the past.
- Our events are funded only by the good will of the community and sponsors like you!
